Job Profile

Job Summary:

Under the direction of the immediate supervisor, the incumbent may perform some form listed general administration functions. These functions are of orderate complexity and the incumbent performs them using established instruction